National Pet Month
Celebrating the bond that keeps pets and their people together.

A Note From Our Founder

May is National Pet Month, a time to celebrate the bond we share with our pets.

For the people we serve, that bond is everything.

Because of you, that connection is protected in moments when it matters most. When someone is facing homelessness, their pet is often their only constant. A source of comfort, safety, and unconditional love in an uncertain world.

Through your support, that bond is not broken.

One of the most powerful places we see this come to life is at our Pet Wellness Clinics.

There is a quiet moment that happens again and again. A pet receives care. Relief sets in. And you can see it on the face of their person, the weight they have been carrying begins to lift. Not just because their pet is being helped, but because they are not alone in that moment.

That is what you make possible.

We captured a glimpse of this at a previous clinic (video below), and I invite you to take a moment to watch. It is a powerful reminder of the impact you have and the lives you are helping keep together.

Thank you for standing with us and for helping ensure that pets and their people never have to be separated.

With gratitude,

Genevieve Frederick

Success Stories That Matter

Highlighting Those Who Deserve It

Hi, my name is Duke,

I'm a 6-year-old Yorkshire Terrier. My sister and I live with our dad in a Salvation Army shelter. I love when he takes us on walks and gives us tummy rubs.

One day, I stopped feeling like myself. I didn't want to eat or play, and I was vomiting and having diarrhea. My dad was really worried, but he did not have the money to take me to a vet.

At the shelter, he found a list of resources posted in the dining hall. That is where he learned about Feeding Pets of the Homeless. He filled out an application, and after speaking with a case manager, I was approved to be seen.

At the clinic, the vet ran tests to rule out parvovirus. I was given fluids and an anti-nausea injection while they continued diagnostics. The doctor found that I had a stomach ulcer and sent me home with probiotics and medication to help me heal.

Now I am resting with my dad and starting to feel better each day. I can't wait to get back to playing with him again.

Feeding Pets of the Homeless contributed $1475 towards Duke's care.

A sweet note from Duke's dad: "Thank you so much. I have been absolutely terrified of being unable to afford Duke's care. You are all angels. I cannot thank you enough."

Big Day of Giving is Coming Soon

Join us for a powerful day of community engagement and help expand the support for pets and the people who depend on them.

You can donate on Thursday, May 7, and making a gift with a credit or debit card.

Donations as little as $10 make a big difference!

Your gifts can help us win some of the prizes that are up for grabs!

You can start giving from April 23 through May 7 during the Early Giving period.

If you donate in a loved one's honor, the website will email that person to let them know.
